

Dear Tongrui ZHANG,

This letter confirms that Beijing Building Construction Research Institute Co., Ltd.; Beijing Institute of Architectural Design; National Astronomical Observatories, and Chinese Academy of Science received a Be Inspired Award in 'Innovation in Structural Engineering' and a Be Inspired Special Recognition Award in 'Advancing Dimensions in Infrastructure' for the 'Five-hundred-meter Aperture Spherical Telescope (FAST)' project.

Each Be Inspired winning organization receives a USD 1000 donation to charity of their choice for each award received. Tongrui ZHANG, as a representative of the winning organizations, nominated the Hunger Project (<http://www.thp.org/>) as the recipient of the winners' two USD 1000 donations (USD 2000).

All 2014 Be Inspired Award winners were announced at the Year in Infrastructure 2014 Conference in London, United Kingdom, on 5 November 2014.

Regards,
